

3.0-RETHINKING OUR ROLE

What are we?
Who are we?
What is our role on Earth?

If the Earth has a lifetime of 24 hours
Our kind – the Homo sapiens – The Thinking Animal
Arrived only in the last 10 seconds.

The first question we ask ourselves?
Are we here to plunder the Earth?

Or are we, as wise animals,
The caretakers and guardians of life,

Of the LAW of Life?

Let me tell you another story.

In the island of little Perlas, for one
whole year a family
excitedly prepared
for a wedding feast.
Special rice planted
into ripened grain,
To feed the body
and the brain.

Fruits and veggies
did grow
Green and healthy for all to glow.

One week before the wedding, the preparations began in earnest.

Everyone was dressed in their finest
And their behavior were at its best.

Days before the wedding,
They began the finest cooking.

Then came the wedding day
Everyone came, the young and the gray.

Man and wife arrived in a horse and carriage
To be joined in the sacred rites of marriage.

Family and friends in love and laughter.
Wish them happiness forever after.

Together they all sing and dance
To celebrate man and woman's romance.

As the guests were called to take their seats
To take their share of the wonderful food,
One man comes in, one who had too much to drink
The drunk goes to the table full, kicks it over,
The food falls to the ground,
Unfit for the guests and even for the goats.

The drunk then pulls out a knife,
Stabs the bride and the groom dead.
As the guests scamper away in dread. .

Is the wedding party is the Life on Earth,
The life of those who came before our birth?

Is who is the drunk?

Did he come from the world of aliens?
Or is he the Homo sapiens?
